

JOIN THE LEADERS IN EQUITY AND DIVERSITY (LEAD) COLLABORATIVE

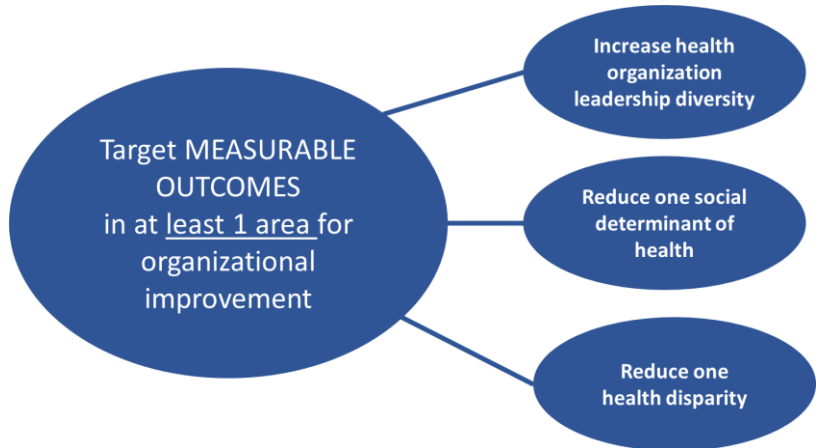

“Closing health disparities requires an unprecedented level of collaboration at the community level with innovative leaders from a range of sectors.” ~ Jean Accius, SVP, Global Thought Leadership, AARP

WHY

By joining the Leaders in Equity and Diversity (LEAD) Collaborative, you and your organization will be part of a regional initiative to reduce disparities, especially among diverse and aging populations, by targeting measurable outcomes.

WHAT

The LEAD Collaborative is a learning community of healthcare delivery organizations with a commitment to action-oriented learning and implementation of strategies to address health disparities in diverse and aging populations. LEAD is rooted in the principles of “all teach, all learn”.

At no cost, each organization will:

- Have access to experts in addressing social determinants of health, health equity, and diversity
- Be in a learning community with other organizations sharing and supporting each other
- Have access to monthly educational and coaching webinars
- Participate in three face-to-face meetings over 18 months

WHO

Regional leaders based in Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Virginia, West Virginia, and Washington, DC working together to meaningfully reduce health disparities and advance health equity! This LEAD Collaborative, supported by AARP, is limited to 35 organizations and their leaders and is only for organizations that will commit to a measurable improvement in health equity. Join us and LEAD!
